Warm welcomes and fond farewells

Zoila Hall recently joined the staff as a retirement benefits assistant.

A native of Panama, she and her husband Enrique, with their daughter Zoien, moved to the United States in 2011. The family settled in Maryland where Hall earned a bachelor's degree in healthcare administration. She has worked mostly in Washington, D.C., area public schools providing English as a Second Language (ESL) support to children and adults, managing volunteers, and as a human resources analyst.

"We welcome Zoila to Adventist Retirement. She will be a great asset to our team," says Lisa Turpen, associate administrator, Defined Benefit Plans and SHARP.

"I'm honored and glad to work for such an inclusive and fantastic organization here at NAD . . . where people are valued and are given the opportunity to grow and contribute to the success of the organization," said Hall.

soon moved into the role of benefits assistant and later to DC Plan specialist.

“It has been a privilege to have the opportunity to work on both the DB Plan serving retirees and on the DC Plan serving current workers. I am most grateful for this journey of professional and spiritual growth, and I have gained lifelong friends and mentors,” said Kannanaikkel.

Wirmin Alcantara, associate administrator, DC Plans, had this to say: “Anastasiya’s contributions to this organization have been immense and tremendous, and I have no doubt that she will keep doing a good work in her next job as well. It was a pleasure working with Anastasiya—her dedication will always be a prime example for others.

Administrator Edwin G. Romero added, “Thank you, Anastasiya for serving our people so well and for your friendship. I know the Lord will continue guiding your path as you assume your new responsibilities. You will be missed.”

Vernon Rogers

“Vernon Rogers has provided dedicated service to the Retirement Office since 2006 when he joined the SHARP team as a SHARP Assistant,” says Turpen. “He transitioned to a Benefit Assistant in 2018, and his knowledge of all retirement benefits has been beneficial to our teams. Vernon has decided to retire and spend time with his family. Though we will miss seeing him on a daily basis, he will continue to assist with the processing of benefits. We wish him God’s richest blessings in this time of change.”

Romero shares, “Vernon is an amazing colleague and friend. He has served with dignity and excellence, and we will sorely miss him around here. We wish him only the best during his retirement.” ■
